A.R.S. 25-381.01 et.seq. providing statutory requirements as to the establishment and operation of a Conciliation Court, and good cause appearing therefore

IT IS ORDERED establishing a Conciliation Court and appointing the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court as the Judge of the Conciliation Court, and transferring to the Presiding Judge of the Domestic Relations Department all authority and responsibility to conduct trials or other proceedings of the Conciliation Court,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Presiding Judge of the Domestic Relations Department may transfer all cases to the judge in the Domestic Relations Department otherwise assigned the cause number, such transfer(s) to be authorized whenever necessary to expedite the business of the Conciliation Court or to insure the prompt consideration of the case. In the event of such transfer(s), the judge to whom the case is transferred shall act as the judge of the Conciliation Court in the matter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court, as the Judge of the Conciliation Court, may appoint and may terminate the appointment of a competent person to act as the Director of Conciliation.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Director of the Conciliation Court shall report to the Presiding Judge of the Domestic Relations Department as to all matters concerning programs and services of the Conciliation Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Director of the Conciliation Court shall report to the Court Administrator as to all matters concerning finance, budget, personnel, facilities, security, information systems, and any other matters dealing with the administration, management, and operation of the Conciliation Court.

DONE this 20th day of November, 1997.
